

PRESS RELEASE – For Immediate Release

Think Safe 2 Be Safe to participate in the Jax4kids.com Child Safety Fun Fair

Jacksonville, FL – September 30, 2010. Think Safe 2 Be Safe will participate in the Jax4kids.com Child Safety Fun Fair outside the Jacksonville University home football game in Jacksonville, Florida on October 9, 2010.

The Child Safety Fun Fair will be open from 10:00am to 12:00pm and will host kid's activities and safety awareness, kid's games and information for adults about how to protect their children. There will be sampling, sales, coupons and free Kid ID Kits.

Think Safe 2 Be Safe will participate with a booth offering information about children's safety. They will feature information about their popular children's safety book series "Think Safe 2 Be Safe", which helps teach children about safety through reading. The book series, written by Teresa Meares, contains three books with easy-to-read short illustrated stories. The titles includes "I'm Lost, What Should I Do?", "Knock, Knock - Who Is At The Door?" and "What Is A Stranger?". Her books have simple and fun lessons that let children and their parent(s) imagine examples that would fit their family life.

Think Safe 2 Be Safe will also disperse information about their website www.thinksafe2besafe.com which provides a secure location for children to interact and participate while learning about safety through having fun. Interactive activities include a safety quiz, games, puzzles, which are appropriate for a wide range of ages (3-10). Also, it features the "Be Safe Club", a free safety based club children can join, which provides safety tips to children via emails from a Think Safe 2 Be Safe trained safety professional that communicates "in character" as the website's mascots when answering questions and providing safety tips.

About the Author - Teresa Meares lives in Jacksonville, FL with her husband, Gary. Together they have four children. She is currently CEO of D.G.G. Taser & Tactical Supply. Meares has 23 years of law enforcement experience, and is a retired patrol sergeant with the St Johns County Sheriff's Office. She is an advocate for educating parents and children on being aware of personal safety and educating them on how to keep themselves as well as their children safe.
